Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Thursday 28 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Some heavy rain and snow tonight, Friday morning, easing later.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloudy with further spells of rain sleet and snow. The snow mainly affecting higher ground inland with some moderate to heavy falls building up. Rain on lower ground nearer coasts, heavy from Aberdeen southwards. Fresh northeast winds. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Friday:
Further heavy rain and inland snow in the morning, this gradually turning lighter and patchy in the afternoon. Clearing skies in evening with widespread ice, a few snow showers north. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cold with widespread frosts. Northerly winds feeding brighter spells and a scattering of rain, sleet and snow showers across northern areas, while south stays brightest and mainly dry.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.